FIGHTING EIGHTY YEARS OF LIES - THE NEW BRITISH UNION

Editors note

With the rapid growth in our movement I would like to take this opportunity to explain our present situation for the benefit of new and some old members.

NBU is not a political party, under the unfair first past the post system small parties can not hope to win seats, UKIP after 25 years for example have no MP's.

We have no interest in wasting time effort and money fighting every five years in elections we will not win.

Our aim is to get fellow fascists into town halls by standing as Independent candidates, which we have already had success doing. Also members should join club/sports committees, school councils, all types of community or campaigning groups, this way we will be laying concrete foundations for the future. This was a tried and tested tactic carried out by Mussolini's Blackshirts back in the twenties and used by Mosley in the thirties to have people in place for when crisis came about.

People not politicians isn't just a slogan it is what NBU is all about. This approach is low key and often covert so not suited to would be politicians interested only in flag waving wearing rosettes and thinking of how much they can make! NBU want people willing to work for the benefit of our country and folk in their own communities concentrating on local issues and local politics.

Every officer is a local hero in my eyes, they have truly stood up to be counted. I cannot stress enough how important it is to have people in place ready to lead.

You may feel you are not achieving anything but nothing could be further from the truth. You are all inspirational , just talking to people and breaking down barriers is a paramount important first step. Spreading the word creates a sea in which we can swim.

We are getting noticed, recently appearing on ITV Ireland and about to record an interview with ITV Wales, we also will be featuring in a documentary coming up on Vice. People are talking about us which in turn helps us grow even bigger. So if you are looking for flashing lights and bells you may be disappointed but if you want steady growth and really care about your community then NBU is your natural home.

THE COMING IMPLOSION

By David Clarke

What is going to happen when our European countries are over-run by blacks, browns, yellows, including Muslims and Semites?

It has been calculated that the Earth is capable of sustaining 2.2 billion people at a socio-economic level equivalent to the developed countries of the West. At present, there are 7.5 billion people on Earth and within a few decades there will be 10.5 billion.

What does that mean for the West? As millions of these people from under-developed countries enter our societies they draw on our resources, water, food, housing, medical services, employment insurance (the dole) and other government services - all to the detriment of our western life style.

So too, these people are not used to limiting family size so that they have sufficient resources to raise children. Once raised in poverty or on the dole, their children will have little desire to work. They will take the dole as the natural course of things.

This is exactly the same situation that Sir Oswald Mosley saw in the 1930's in the BUF and again in the Union Movement into the 1970's. He always said: "Britain should be for Britons first, the Dominions second and the rest not at all."

As climates change, and areas that already cannot support their populations are even more under pressure, there will be further famines, water shortages and an increasing incentive for these people to migrate to the West. A few years ago, in Canada, you would never see a jet black Central African - now you see them everywhere.

Are we, as Blackshirts, willing to endure the end of our European civilizations to accommodate these migrating millions? Mosley certainly would have said NO!

DEMOCRACY DOES NOT WORK

By David Clarke

The noted comedian, John Cleese, who is under attack for declaring that London is not an English city anymore, also declared that "democracy doesn't work" in an interview on You Tube.

To back up his statement, 60% of London's population is not Anglo-European. 40% of London's population were not born in England. Finally, 330,000 Anglo-Europeans have left London in one year to escape being overwhelmed by the black and brown flood of immigrants.

John Cleese has decided to permanently leave England for the sunny shores of Nevis Island in the Caribbean. Nevis Island is part of the Federation of St. Kitts and Nevis. The bulk of the population are descendants of West African slaves brought there to produce sugar. Nevis is also an offshore tax haven for the rich and for criminals laundering money. Nevis has a British style education system and according to Cleese, the population is pleasant and well educated.

No less than Churchill said something not too dis-similar to John Cleese: "that democracy is the worst form of Government except for all those other forms that have been tried from time to time." (1947, House of Commons). Too bad Mosley's ideas were never tried. The corporatist state he envisioned, where everyone had a voice, which is a staple of the NBU platform, just might have been the answer to all the problems of democracy.

I suspect that most Blackshirts would agree that democracy has let us down and produced a dictatorship of the Left-Labour-Liberals, Conservatives and cultural Marxists.

Another migrant front opens on Europe, yet the media in Britain stays silent

Article by NorthernScot

No one can forget the sight of large numbers of whom the majority wear masks, who marched in to and through Europe, all thanks to Angela Merkel and the EU opening the doors of Europe.

We still read of and see on news broadcasts, the never ending numbers of yet again, mainly young males, from Third World countries in the Middle East and Saharan Africa, looking to set up home in Europe.

Now a new wave of migrants claiming asylum in Western Europe has started, this time from those in South American nations.

In the New York Times, dated 11th June 2019, an article appeared, written by Melissa Vida `Migrants unwelcome in the US, look to Europe.

The report states that "The number seeking asylum in Europe has increased nearly 4,000 percent in the last decade, according to official figures, and the rate of arrivals is accelerating. Nearly 7,800 applied for asylum in Europe last year, up from 4,835 in 2017"

With an economic poverty felt by many in countries like El Salvador, Venezuela and Mexico along with the drug gang warfare in South America, it is of no surprise that thousands of South Americans now view Europe as the place to claim asylum, once they arrive on planes.

The New York Times reports on an El Salvadorian lady, Ms Marroquin, aged 53, who decided that attempting to get into the USA, was a waste of time, so headed across the Atlantic to Europe.

FIGHTING EIGHTY YEARS OF LIES - THE NEW BRITISH UNION

The NYT stated that Ms Marroquin told them that; "Going to the United States would be crazy right now", citing the Trump administration push for tougher immigration policies.

Ms Marroquin who has a 27 year old son explained that she feared for his life due to the increasing violence by gangs. Her other son who now resides in Belgium and the NYT report stated that, the son had "filled out the paperwork to allow her, along with her husband, her daughter and her 27 year old son, David, to enter as tourists.

"When she had saved enough money, she booked ha flight to Brussels. A few days later after arriving, they applied for asylum."

Europe it seems does not require visa`s for those entering from South American nations, whilst America does.

Ms Marroquin was not the only example reported on. The NYT`s also reported on a Mr Hernandez how flow to Spain with hotel reservation details with him, to show the authorities that he was arriving as a tourist. Mr Hernandez we are told applied for asylum in March 2018, but because of the backlog of asylum claims in Spain, it would be many years before the Spanish authorities made a full decision on his claim. He has found work on a pig farm, near Barcelona.

The top three destinations for South Americans claiming asylum in Europe are Spain, Italy and Belgium. Yet those three nations are hardly economic drivers in the EU, which must beg the question, if asylum is granted to a growing number of South Americans, will they not eventually head for nations, such as Germany, Holland, Britain, Sweden, whose economies offer the greater chances of work and possibly government assistance?

The New York Times report stated that;" Ms Marroquin said that most of the rest of her family lived in the United States, but she expressed satisfaction with her decision to come to Belgium, adding that she felt her son David was now safe. She said that she expected others to take the same path.

"More are going to come here" she said.

Did Facebook actually do Patriot groups a good turn.

Article by Northern Scot

Recently, Facebook and other social media sites removed what they called `Far-Right hate organisations` from their internet sites.

Their aim was to remove links and discussions by such groups members, supporters. In reality, they aimed to stop Patriots posting pictures and articles that the liberal left leaning groups did not want the average voter from knowing about.

What they consider as a victory, could actually backfire over the coming months, if Patriot groups and Nationalists groups, go back to the basics, when exposing the system and the airbrushing of news, that Patriot organisations, regularly challenged via social media.

Back in the 1970`s through to the late 1980`s Patriot organisations were very street active and membership of such organisations grew and grew.

The coming of social media whilst it has its plus points, slowly turned many activists in to commentators via social media. This suited the system/authorities for a as it slowly took a fair number of activists away from the front line.

It is true to say that the BNP the likes of the EDL still saw supporters turning out at demos, but how many demo`s actually achieved anything? That was the trap cleverly laid down by the authorities.

At the height of the BNP during the 1980-90`s`s, the party had dozens of councillors, Town and City councillors along with a fair number of parish councillors. Even the National Front gained some victories. Such groups were starting to slowly break through via the ballot box. It even gained the BNP two MEP`s.

Sadly, this growth in local campaigning , door to door leafleting and canvassing, weakened due to social media. There grew a lack of activists willing to come forward and stand in elections. Social media left a fair number of members and supporters as social media activists. This was a grave error in the Patriot organisations.

Now the likes of Facebook or Leftbook as some call it have removed all trace of Patriot groups from their pages. So how and what must be done by supporters/members of such Patriot groups?

The New British Union along with all other Patriot groups must return to street activity, by-passing Leftbook and other social media sites. Street activity can still see demonstrations, but the real work that saw the likes of the BNP grow a membership of over 13,000 was by engaging with local media via letter writing, the production of campaign leaflets, that keep the wording legal and delivered to local households and in town/city centres, on local and national issues.

Yes, it sounds a bit boring, but it was exactly those activities that saw the heady days of the 1970`s and 1980`s when it came to membership and activity.

Targeted housing estates where delivered leaflets on issues that effected those households, local or national. Leaflets/handouts had a membership application form or a find out more about the X organisation with a postal address or website address.

It was amazing how groups membership and support grew, for the simple reason, those householders were able to read about our campaigns and beliefs in the comfort of their own homes.

Colleges were also targeted for handout leaflets. The left went bonkers, but it gained us many young activists.

In the corridors of town and city halls, real power to make change is embedded. As long as activists kept to social media or the next demo continued, the mainstream/lamestream parties carried on with controlling the destiny of our towns and city folk.

It is time now for ALL Patriot groups to return to the 1970`s- 80`s style of campaigning, away from the police who cage in demo`s. It is time to take up local issues and national issues whether handing out leaflets in the High Streets or a campaign table in the town centre.

It is time to return to those housing estates, to show that Patriots have the answers and the willingness to help local communities.

Maybe that sounds quite boring. But it was the method that saw thousands upon thousands joining Patriot groups and gained Patriots willing to stand in elections elected.

Remember, stopping another new mosque application or saying no to yet more and more asylum seekers from the Third World being placed (dumped) in your towns and cities can be done within the corridors of Town and City Council Chambers. We in the NBU also believe in local-ism, where local shops carry local goods. Far too many shops in our towns are now empty. A new vision is needed for them and we have the answers.

So it`s up to you, will you kick things off again in your local area. Two Patriots enacting such 1970`s-80`s successful; methods, will over a short period of time become, 3 or 4 or 5 in that group. That group will eventually become in the dozens.

It worked before, lets make it work once again. It`s time to dump social media for our campaigns and by-pass the Hard-Left groups, the authorities and start to remind the masses of decent working class Brits, that WE speak for them and not the Lamestram political parties.

FIGHTING EIGHTY YEARS OF LIES - THE NEW BRITISH UNION

HAVE YOUR SAY

War has come. Our enemy seeks to completely obliterate us. Their goal is not to make us submit, but to remove us. But we will not submit. We will not be removed. We will fight tooth and nail for our existence, and in the end, we will win. We will push back the foreign hordes, again and again and again, as our ancestors have done in Europe. We have their blood in our veins, and we must protect it. Our ancestors are urging us to fight. To fight to secure the future of our descendants. To fight for the future of our homelands. To fight for the future of the world! Our once beloved nation has lost its mind. Communist tendencies can be seen in our children, and the generation before mine has pushed this on us. But do not despair, hope is not lost. We can still win. All we have to do is stand up. It will not be easy, and it will not be a short struggle, but if we work together we can overcome. We must look at our children, and think of the world we will leave for them. We must create a world where they can live in peace and harmony. We will rise in triumph, and we shall not fail!

Cody Benoun (US Blackshirt)

Message: We need to be in control of our own future. As Aristotle once said "tolerance and apathy are the last virtues of a dying society", and many people today, although they think the way they do, show apathy towards change, and imply tolerance as a result. We are living in a dying society that seems happy to let the government decide how their future will rest. I dream of a country where people are free to speak as they wish without the fear of imprisonment and the label of a "racist", when all we wish for is a fair and just society where we no longer pander to foreign people who wish to come to OUR country and inflict their own beliefs on us. The state of our country is NOT ok, and I can't sit and watch any longer. Action needs to be made.

Message: So glad that I've discovered you! Terry Martin sent me a friend request on Facebook and then added me to New British Union secret group. In the past I've joined The National Front and Britain First. But it all seems to be about egos and no-one wants to work together. Your movement appears to actually want to bring about change. When I was younger I was an idealogical socialist/communist, actively involved with The Socialist Workers Party but the left do not have a clue concerning real change. I am an admirer of Oswald Mosley and consider that a true revolution can only come from the right. I would love to be a part of what you are seeking to achieve so please do contact me. I am available to help in anyway I can.

The quiet revolution

It is indeed refreshing to see intelligence and new tactics like this. I don't know, of course, how many Independents from the NBU have made it into town council elections; but the premise is absolutely correct. Too many "parties," there in Britain and here in the US, have done the same old thing and expected different results; as Einstein said, that's one definition of insanity. Far too many have been "costume clubs" that never ran a single candidate for anything. Now, on a national level, we all know that the entrenched powers will not be unseated by a third party coming at them in elections. BUT THAT ISN'T REALLY THE POINT! The point is to get people, on a grass-roots level, to start thinking "outside the box" in the first place. Fascist revolution is, first and foremost, a revolution in THOUGHT. Other forms may well be needed later -- but this is the place to start.

Seth Tryssen

Message: When the BNP saw a short lived but good surge in support and increase of its numbers it was because it appealed to local issues and local people under the slogan rights for whites it was this that lifted them up to their status of being well known but it was stopped by anti fascist and anti patriot efforts as well as labour and they call themselves the party of the normal Joe. But also combat 18 was formed to protect against these attacks but soon became its own force and ruined BNP efforts to not seem nazi but due to using a symbol used by nazi officers and printing off nazi propaganda under BNP it helped degrade the party largely. So New British Union must not make the same mistakes like that do not allow us to be attacked this can be achieved by it taking part in large scale demos and not running out for a punch up which many BNP members did. We must appeal locally and get involved getting support we need but not getting attacked at the same time its a perfect idea that can't wrong it worked for BNP it can work for NBU without getting attacked by anyone or thing as antfia falls to chaos and labour in crisis and other anti patriot efforts being slammed more online and even on the streets we can have the pleasure of not being attacked unlike BNP when far left attacks were new and interesting to many leftists but now they are old and their true faces are coming out in fact I saw a story about a man in a wheelchair arguing I think with antfia or taking part in a right wing demo one of the thugs threw water on the man. So as they go into chaos we can only rise .

Comrade D.C

Just a quick update... My family and I are still awaiting finalisation of the purchase of our new home, but due to the not entirely unexpected faffing around and nonsense from solicitors we are still living in a field (entering week four)! We have already survived two "yellow weather warnings" and several other less exciting indignities, which if nothing else has brought us together and strengthened our resolve. I have contacted Ken in Bristol and recieved a very positive response from him. I will keep up correspondence with him later this week and fill him in on any developments. I would like to say thank you for including excerpts of my letter to the NBU in the Blackshirt newsletter. I would very much like to contribute with further articles of a more pointed and specific nature in the near future. This is just a quick catchup message to let you know that although I'm still struggling with the important business of daily life as it is for us, I am highly motivated to begin working towards building a base for NBU operations in my area when things settle.

NBU East Anglia Regional Officer

My name is Claire Ambler, & I've lived in Great Yarmouth, Norfolk since 2000. My interest in right-wing politics, policies, way of life, Etc. started when I was 9 years old, in primary school learning about the Nazi's. I was introduced to the New British Union in summer 2014, by a now former member, decided to "check them out" - & the rest is history! I've been Regional Officer for approx 3 years, & enjoy being part of this movement - although it hasn't always been easy! (especially where "relatives" are concerned!). Outside of the NBU, I work part-time, pursue several hobbies & look after my two pet cats. I'd like to make the public more aware of the NBU, so any potential members or those with an interest in right-wing - please get in touch!

BRITISH UNION OF FASCISTS MARCHING SONG

Comrades, the voices of the dead battalions, of those who fell that Britain might be great,
join in our song, for they still march in spirit with us, and urge us on to gain the Fascist state!

We're of their blood, and spirit of their spirit, sprung from that soil for whose dear sake they bled, against vested powers, Red Front, and massed ranks of reaction, we lead the fight for freedom and for bread!

The streets are still, the final struggle's ended;
flushed with the fight we proudly hail the dawn!
See, over all the streets the Fascist banners waving, triumphant standards of our race reborn!

BOOK REVIEW

The story of a Blackshirt officer based on fact

Quote from Afterword: "Mad Hatter is my father's story as imagined by me, based on historical and family research. It took more than fifty years to arrive at the place where I could begin my first tentative attempts to write this book. I had to wait for the shame-induced fog to clear in order to reveal to myself the simple facts of this deeply emotional story. I had to believe these facts as real and not simply a story I'd grown up with; and then I had to transform them into a story laced with memory and imagination. I had to hone my craft as a writer until I was sufficiently skilled in imagining believably what could not be verified by memory."

"This is why Mad Hatter is a work of fiction - not a biography of my father, not a memory of my own experience of his absence, nor even a tricky creative non-fiction, though elements of those genres do punctuate the story. And this is why, after a lifetime of active waiting, the actual writing took so long - twelve years of exploratory writing and research followed by six years of full-on intentional writing. I had to take hold of my experience, take charge of it and make it part of my identity by creating the memories which have been denied me and which I have hungered for all my life."

"Key issues have been: censorship, taboo, shame and humiliation, silence, secrecy; reclamation of emotional memory through various means, the tipping points being sculpture and writing. Once I had reclaimed the memory of unconditional love for my father I had to surrender to an overwhelming and debilitating process of grieving his death. The reclamation and grieving have been most painful and the most rewarding, because they have given me back my humanity."

FIGHTING EIGHTY YEARS OF LIES - THE NEW BRITISH UNION

TOP TEN LIES TOLD ABOUT MOSLEY AND THE BUF

1. The people of East London rose up and defeated Oswald Mosley at the Battle of Cable Street.

The Battle of Cable Street wasn't fought between Blackshirts and the people of East London. It was fought between the police and communists imported from all over Britain. Ten days after Cable Street the Blackshirts marched to Limehouse in East London where Mosley spoke to over 100,000 people amid scenes of considerable enthusiasm. In the local elections 6 months later, nearly 25% of the people of East London voted for Oswald Mosley which was an astonishing result considering that the vote was restricted to house owners. In the 1930s only heads of households had the right to vote in local elections - the young, the unemployed, and most women did not get a vote.

2. Oswald Mosley and his supporters were anti-Semitic.

Oswald Mosley never criticised anybody for what they were born. But he didn't believe that Jews were the only people in the world immune from criticism. Oswald Mosley criticised some Jews for what they did, not all Jews for what they were. That's why Jews like John Beckett (British Union Director of Publications), Bill Leaper (Editor of the Blackshirt) and Harold Soref (later Tory M.P. for Ormskirk), and the Jewish boxer Kid Lewis had no problem supporting him.

3. Members of British Union attacked Jews and Communists.

The British Union Regulations forbade members to carry weapons or engage in unprovoked attacks on opponents, regardless of their race or political allegiance, on pain of instant dismissal. These Regulations were always strictly enforced. No such embargo appears to have existed among British Union's Communist and Jewish opponents. For example, both Claude Cockburn and Jacob 'Jack the Spot' Comacho boast in their memoirs about the weapons, which included razors, axes, knives, and iron bars, that some Jews / Communists used to assault men and women members of British Union.

4. People who joined Oswald Mosley were violent thugs.

Among the people who joined Mosley were Henry Williamson, who wrote

FIGHTING EIGHTY YEARS OF LIES - THE NEW BRITISH UNION

'Tarka the Otter'; Jorian Jenks, the pioneer of organic farming; Spike Milligan, the comedian; Donald Marendaz, the racing driver; and Dennis Lucan, DFM, the famous RAF Dambuster.

Members who served as speakers at outdoor meetings or sold party newspapers on street corners were often subject to razor attack by Communists following their party's instruction to "Clear the Blackshirts off the streets!" Therefore active members had to become proficient at self-defence or face horrific injuries. Although they never started fights they certainly knew how to finish them.

5. Oswald Mosley and his British Union were pro-German 'Fifth Columnists'.

Oswald Mosley was pro-British not pro-German. He was against fighting a War in which 60-million people died unless Great Britain or its Commonwealth were attacked. But when War was declared he instructed all members in the Armed Services to strictly obey their orders and all other supporters to fight to the death if invaded to drive the foreigners from our shores. Nobody who was a member of his party when War was declared was ever charged or convicted of treason. But many members who obeyed Mosley's call died fighting for their country.

6. Oswald Mosley and his supporters hated Black people.

Oswald Mosley was against immigration, not immigrants. He believed multi-racism undermined cultural cohesion in both communities and was driven by Big Business wanting to exploit immigrants as cheap labour. Mosley produced constructive proposals to give everybody a fair deal in their country of origin.

After the War he founded the 'Associate Movement' for Black immigrants who supported his ideas. It was run by an African Airline Pilot and an Indian Solicitor.

7. Oswald Mosley was financed by the Nazis.

After the War, Oswald Mosley challenged the Labour Government to go through the British Union account books and bank transactions and find any evidence of donations by foreign governments. The Labour Government, which hated Mosley, produced no such evidence that he had been financed by Germany, Italy or any other country. Subsequent research by historians, journalists, and academics have also failed to produce a single piece of evidence to support the claim that Oswald Mosley or his political movement received finance from foreign countries. The fact was - British Union was financed by donations from thousands of patriotic British people who believed their fellow countrymen and women deserved better than long-term unemployment, hunger and war. There is however clear evidence that the British Communist Party, the Labour Party, and the Conservative Party have all in the past received donations from overseas sources.

8. Oswald Mosley's Blackshirts wouldn't fight for Britain in World War Two.

The first two casualties of WW2 were RAF Gunners George Brocking and Ken Day who died on the second day of war attacking the German fleet. They were both members of Mosley's British Union. The very first of the armada of 'Little Ships' to arrive at Dunkirk in May 1940 to rescue British troops from the beaches was sailed over by Eric Piercy and Colin Dick. They were both members of Oswald Mosley's British Union.

9. Oswald Mosley and British Union were against trade unions.

Far from being against trade unions, Mosley wanted trade unionists to become majority stakeholders in the companies that employed them. Under the Corporate State that British Union proposed, working people would share in the ownership and running of the companies they worked for. All profits would be shared fairly between workforce and managers - not among absentee shareholders. Instead of starting strikes which solve nothing, trade unionists would take responsibility for ensuring companies were run more efficiently and profitably.

10. British Union members broke up the meetings of political opponents.

Whilst many examples are recorded where Mosley's enemies tried to break up his meetings to stop audiences from hearing him speak, there are no known reports in newspapers at the time indicating that British Union members retaliated by breaking up opponents' meetings. All the famous political disorders during the period that the Blackshirts were active - Cable Street, Olympia, Holbeck Moor and Liverpool (where Mosley was knocked unconscious by a brick) - involved attacks on Mosley meetings and not attacks on Mosley's opponents meetings.
