COMMONSENSE FROM NBU MEMBER

Illegal Immigration

The clues in the name. It's illegal. Whoever crosses a border undocumented and without authorisation is a criminal. I don't care if you just want a better life, get in line like everyone else. Why should you be the exception? A wealthy nation without border integrity is doomed to fail.

Legal immigration is ok but we should really prioritise people with valuable skills and education over people who would be of no benefit. Anyone with a criminal record should be denied entry immediately for obvious reasons.

Having a strong border is a major benefit to nations. Take Japan for example, relatively nationalistic, conservative and has a strong immigration policy. Terrorism, racial tensions and religious extremism is very rare in Japan, all because they have common sense. If you're no good you're out. Don't respect our culture and society, you're out. Prefer to walk the life of a criminal rather than get a job and become a respectable human being, you're out!

Law and Order

The law applies to everyone. I don't care who you are, you're not above the law. If you do something illegal expect to be punished. Don't throw the victim card when the cops are outside your door if you damn well know you've done something wrong.

I have absolutely no tolerance for police officers that cannot do their job. Just take a look at Rotherham over in the UK. A massive scandal involving Pakistani Muslims grooming and raping young girls in the age range of 12-16, most of them being white-British. Over 1200 cases reported, went on for over 14 years. The local council and police force knew about it but kept it quiet because they did not want to aggravate or offend a minority. This is completely unacceptable and worryingly this is a trend across the UK, Europe and US.

Police officers who abuse their power or are just not cut out for the job should be removed and replaced with people who can. We can't afford to uphold the law with weakness and corruption.

Sexual Orientation

Personally this does not bother me that much. If you find yourself attracted to one particular gender (or both) that's none of my business. My only concern with this is the indoctrination of children. Let them decide naturally who they are attracted to, don't decide for them.

Can we also turn down the gay pride marches down a notch. Walking around mostly naked in skimpy clothing is only going to make you look more alien, not the other way around. Not to mention there is usually children present while men walk around with their donges nearly hanging out.

Environmental

I believe we need to take measures to combat pollution as soon as possible. Animal habitats should be preserved if possible and we should resort to more renewable sources of power. More funding needs to be allocated for this since the current options on the table just won't work in the long run.

Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide

If someone is suffering from a terminal illness, is in great pain and suffering, death should be within their options. There comes a point where life can just not be worth living. If the person in question gives complete consent for this to happen, then I cannot see why this should not happen. Obviously this will need to be witnessed by authorities and given approval before it goes ahead in order to avoid charges of murder etc.

Politics is a less bloody method to plunder and bully the innocent.

Democracy is two wolves and a sheep voting on dinner.

Representative democracy is three sheep voting for whether the wolf or the lion will decide dinner.

According to reports, a record number of around 65,000 boat migrants are expected to cross the English Channel and enter the UK in 2023.

Officials from the UK's Home Office expect around 65,000 boat migrants to arrive on British shores this year.

This figure would represent a more than 40% increase over last year's all-time high of around 45,000 boat migrants, with Dover, in the south of England, already seeing hundreds of arrivals in 2023.

Government officials appear to have abandoned any hope of resolving the crisis this year, with even the most optimistic estimate for boat migrant arrivals in 2023 matching last year's 45,000.

However, the paper claims that officials believe a median prediction of around 65,000 arrivals for this calendar year is more realistic, with the worst-case scenario prediction reaching as high as 80,000 if both France and Britain are unable to control the people-smuggler-facilitated crossings.

The Home Office has also reportedly confirmed that it will hire an additional 100 people to work at Dover to process the tens of thousands of arrivals, with both UK Ministers and the Treasury expected to approve the funding for the new hires.

Despite UK Prime Minister Rishi Sunak promising to “stop the boats” used to transport migrants to Britain in his first speech of 2023, Home Office statistics predicting that – even in the best-case scenario – English Channel crossings will remain at a record high .

The white race is suffering from a very nasty disease. That disease is called STUPIDITY

The single biggest contributor into the decline of the white race is the progressive liberal left.

The progressive left is full of white guilt, they put people of colour above white people. They hate their own whiteness, and they see themselves as a charity for people of colour Europe was white, literate, and Christian or secularist ... But politicians brought in immigrants who were not white, not Christian, and typically could not read and write European languages. These (alleged) refugees refused to assimilate and consume millions of welfare dollars that are paid by the White, Christian, citizens – the “immigrants have impacted heavily upon assault and rape as well. Yup, real smart. Real smart. Europe will turn into a toilet similar to Somalia.

The Black Book of Communism: Crimes, Terror, Repression is a 1997 book by Stéphane Courtois, Andrzej Paczkowski, Nicolas Werth, Jean-Louis Margolin, and several other European academics documenting a history of political repression by communist states, including genocides, extrajudicial executions, deportations, and deaths in labour camps and artificially created famines. The book was originally published in France as Le Livre noir du communisme: Crimes, terreur, répression by Éditions Robert Laffont. In the United States, it was published by Harvard University Press, with a foreword by Martin Malia. The German edition, published by Piper Verlag, includes a chapter written by Joachim Gauck.

The authors use the term communism to mean Leninist and Marxist-Leninist communism, i.e. the actually existing communist regimes and "real socialism" of the 20th century.

The introduction, written by Courtois, was the main source of controversy, and was acknowledged by Martin Malia in his foreword. Courtois writes that "Communist regimes turned mass crime into a full-blown system of government" and are responsible for a greater number of deaths than Nazism or any other political system. Courtois says that "Communism, the defining characteristic of the 'short twentieth century' that began in Sarajevo in 1914 and ended in Moscow in 1991, finds itself at center states in the story.

Communism predated fascism and Nazism, outlived both, and left its mark on four continents." Courtois goes on to explain what is meant by the term Communism in the book. According to Courtois, "[w]e must make a distinction between the doctrine of communism and its practice. As a political philosophy, communism has existed for centuries, even millennia." Citing Plato's Republic and Thomas More as communist examples of what he terms utopian philosophy, Courtois states that "the Communism that concerns us does not exist in the transcendent sphere of ideas. This Communism is altogether real; it has existed at key moments of history and in particular countries, brought to life by its famous leaders", citing Fidel Castro, Jacques Duclos, Vladimir Lenin, Georges Marchais, Ho Chi Minh, Joseph Stalin, and Maurice Thorez as examples of the latter.

According to the introduction, the number of people killed by the Communist governments amounts to more than 94 million. The statistics of victims include deaths through executions, man-made hunger, famine, war, deportations, and forced labour. The breakdown of the number of deaths is given as follows:

65 million in the People's Republic of China

20 million in the Soviet Union

2 million in Cambodia

2 million in North Korea

1.7 million in Ethiopia

1.5 million in Afghanistan

1 million in the Eastern Bloc

1 million in Vietnam

150,000 in Latin America

10,000 deaths "resulting from actions of the international

Communist movement and Communist parties not in power".

According to Courtois, the crimes by the Soviet Union included the following:

The execution of tens of thousands of hostages and prisoners

The murder of hundreds of thousands of rebellious workers and peasants from 1918 to 1922

The Russian famine of 1921 which caused the death of 5 million people
The decossackization, a policy of systematic repression against the Don Cossacks between 1917 and 1933

The murder of tens of thousands in the Gulag during the period between 1918 and 1930

The Great Purge which killed almost 690,000 people

The dekulakization, resulting in the deportation of 2 million so-called kulaks from 1930 to 1932

The death of 4 million Ukrainians (Holodomor) and 2 million others during the famine of 1932 and 1933

The deportations of Poles, Ukrainians, Moldovans, and people from the Baltic states from 1939 to 1941 and from 1944 to 1945

The deportation of the Volga Germans in 1941

The deportation of the Crimean Tatars in 1944

Operation Lentil and deportation of the Ingush in 1944

This and other communist death tolls have been criticized by various left-wing historians and scholars.

Any attempt to estimate a total number of killings under communist regimes depends greatly on definitions, ranging from a low of 10-20 millions to as high as 110 millions."

"Naftaly Aronovich Frenkel (Russian: Нафталий Аронович Френкель; 1883 in Haifa - 1960 in Moscow) was a Soviet security officer and member of the Soviet secret police. Frenkel is best known for his role in the organisation of work in the Gulag, starting from the forced labour camp of the Solovetsky Islands, which is recognised as one of the earliest sites of the Gulag.

The given name Naftaly is of Hebrew origin, as are the roots of the family name Aronovich. Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn called him a "Turkish Jew born in Constantinople".

CHINESE COMMUNIST PARTY POLICE STATIONS IN THE WEST

World-wide, there are 102 Chinese Police stations in 53 countries as of 2016. These, are claimed to be Covid related stations, according to the Chinese Communist Party. In reality, they are Chinese secret police stations existing for the purpose of intelligence gathering, coercion of Chinese immigrants, and facilitators of spying at the educational level. These police stations are used to intimidate Chinese immigrants into helping the CCP control both the Chinese here in the West and the Chinese back in China, through intimidation and threats to the peace and security of families and individuals in both places.

When Chinese students come here as foreign students to our universities, they come as spies and thieves. They have been ordered to study in fields where the Chinese government wants espionage activity.

It is not unusual for a high level Chinese student, working in nuclear physics, robotics or other sensitive fields of study, to send material back to

China to their masters and when finally leaving the West to steal as much data and actual components with which he or she can escape.

The threat to the West, of Chinese infiltration into our sensitive industries and university study systems is unimaginable. Any Chinese immigrant must be vetted VERY carefully to see what kind of threat he or she may represent and who their families are back in China and how much coercion can be used against them.

A Chinese immigrant who comes to the West simply as a labourer or shop keeper or other non-critical type of employee, is not a threat until he is ordered to assist in some nefarious activity that the CCP wants. Then he is a liability with which we must deal.

Transhumanism and Globalists

“We are at the brink of the final extinction” 1 of man. Neo-liberal globalists are about to take us to a new level of inhumanity. In this world of gender madness where a man can win a women’s swimming match and the elites want to watch us 24/7 and create neo-feudal slaves out of our western population, they are trying to convince our people that life is an imaginary construct.

They want the human species to take control over its own evolution.

Recently, Greece introduced digital identification cards for its population – exactly what Klaus Schwab and his unelected World Economic Forum wants for everyone on the planet!

They want to play god with humanity.

China has now created a non-human womb within which embryos can be nurtured and grow (this is called ectogenesis) and is being touted as a robotic nanny. They say that this will release women from the nine months of suffering they endure to produce children and that now their careers need not be interrupted by childbirth. Elon Musk suggests that a neuralink brain implant that he is working on will allow humans to have their thoughts turned into a digital form and uploaded to the Cloud! This is what is being called the Fourth Industrial Revolution.

This evil walks among us now. The elitists are playing at being god. In Canada, euthanasia is now easily gotten by children, physically and mentally impaired persons, the poor, the homeless, and the depressed. Eugenics is now back among us after its ignoble rejection after the Second World War.

Taken all together, it can be easily seen what the elites are planning for us.

It was recently suggested that everyone should have a carbon credit wallet.

This would allow a poor person to sell their carbon allowance to wealthy people like Leonardo Di Caprio so he could jet around the world on his private airplane when his carbon allowance had been exhausted.

Total control of our lives, our wealth, our freedom from oversight and super surveillance are on the table. If we do not chose to fight we are doomed.

Evil can never be dead enough!

DAVID CLARKE NBU CANADA

I will accept any label anyone wants to throw my way. Please someone explain why it's such a horrible thing to be white. First, we owe reparations to know one. We freed the slaves who were bought and sold for thousands of years, before white Europeans and Americans were buying them, the Chinese were hundreds of years before us. In fact the Chinese owned more slaves then any other ethnicity on the planet and they have a nationalist nation with a population that is 91 percent Asian. Racist? Of course not. Only if you are white.

Truth is we freed the slaves and through the united nations and earlier the League of Nations, white people banned the practice of slavery through out the world. 600000 Americans died to end slavery. Today however on the African continent, slavery still continues unfortunately. So why is it white people are hated and stigmatized while other ethnicities who were just as culpable and even more so, given a free pass. The answer is.ply is this. We achieved world domination first and we continue to hold that title to this day. We invented western civilization, the most advanced civilization the world has ever known. Cars, computers, internet, space travel, air travel, radio, phones, air conditioning, television, modern medicine, advancements in medicine, the x-ray machine, radar, etc etc all created by white Europeans or Americans.

Because of that we are resented for it. Ever since the beginning of time man has fought over land and food, each tribe or ethnicity competing to achieve domination over the others. We did it.. And because of that we are hated for it. Who can possibly make war against us? The Chinese have stolen every design we made. Japan was humiliated in WW2 in their defeat. Arabs? After several nations feeble attempt to make war with us, we humiliated them. As for Black nations, that is not even a remote possibility as they cannot even put together an army of any kind capable of fending off low level pirates let alone a world super power.

Call me a racist, bigot, whatever you want. What I just laid down is cold hard facts that will no doubt make many people sore and bitter. I could care less. As for reparations. Well, in 1849 the average black person lived to be only 38 years old. Half of black children on the African continent died before age 5 from various ailments, etc. Today, because of advancements in modern medicine (brought to you by whitey), blacks live to be 78 years of age and child mortality is no longer a problem. So there's your reparations. I am proud of my culture and my heritage. It is truly a blessing and privilege to be white. I will never be ashamed or will I ever apologize to anyone for what I know to be truth. And the truth is, it's more than ok to be white. It's truly amazing. Celebrate. Be proud. Our ancestors built this great culture.

After nine years Twitter has seen fit to permanently ban our main account for 'hateful content' without a single tweet given in evidence. As with Facebook someone has decided that, despite being a completely legal constituted group with a full manifesto on line for all to read, that NBU is a hate group. Interesting that they both only came to this conclusion when our accounts regularly began to reach hundreds of thousands of people. Proof if proof was needed we are reaching people and the establishment are scared by our growth. I would urge all of you to join Gab and support our new account <https://gab.com/Blackshirt>

All officers and cell leaders should set up regional accounts using official NBU logos which we will supply.

Please Don't leave this to 'other people' or nothing gets done. A simple easy way to spread the truth and do your bit, you will reach people you will wake some up and you will definitely increase our membership.

We must not let this latest attack slow our growth Gab is easy to use please sign up and play your part in promoting NBU and British Fascism today.

Thank you

Reform UK's support for the Blue Wall has more than doubled since Rishi Sunak became Prime Minister. According to the Redfield and Wilton Strategies poll, Richard Tice's party, formerly known as the Brexit Party and led by Nigel Farage, has 6% of the vote.

The poll polled 1,200 adults from 42 seats in the Conservative Party's southern heartlands.

Reform UK is up from 3% in the previous comparable polling in November, a month after Mr Sunak was elected to No. 10.

"Our momentum is growing as voters realise the two main parties are now just variants of socialism," Mr Tice said.

"We are the only party that can be trusted to stop the boats while also proposing bold solutions to the cost of living, health care, and energy bills."

Another source of concern for Mr Sunak is Blue Wall polling, which found that only 54% of respondents who supported the Conservatives in the 2019 general election would vote for them again.

15% said they would vote Labour now, 9% said they would vote Reform UK, and 3% said they would vote Liberal Democrats.

In addition, the PM's net approval rating in the Blue Wall is minus one, according to the poll.

Mr Sunak's negative rating in the Conservatives' traditional affluent strongholds is "quite remarkable," according to Philip van Scheltinga, director of research at Redfield and Wilton Strategies.

Mr van Scheltinga emphasised how the Prime Minister's popularity has declined in national polls.

"Since the announcement of the furlough scheme in March 2020, his popularity has steadily declined.

"Since then, not a single policy implemented by Rishi Sunak has been well received by the public.

PATRIOTIC ALTERNATIVE REPORT

Following on from the events in Cottingham over the past fortnight, the planned rally in Queen Victoria Square, Hull, took place on Saturday 14th January. It was well publicised and attended by residents of Cottingham, Hull and Yorkshire.

As we expected, a contingent of hard leftists came to try and oppose it.

What the leftists clearly did not expect was the sheer volume of people who turned up in support of the rally, a sizeable portion of which were from Cottingham itself. Before the rally had even properly begun, the people of Hull could see exactly who their enemy was.

There was a fantastic attendance of patriots on the day, with approximately 250 members of the public turning up to show their opposition to plans to house migrants up and down the country in university accommodation, military accommodation and hotels at the taxpayers' expense.

Hosted by PA Deputy Leader Laura Towler, we had four speakers on the day. First was PA Yorkshire Regional Organiser Sam Melia, who spoke about the other successes that Patriotic Alternative has had in confronting the issue of migrant hotels, and spoke about the need to campaign against this issue on a national scale.

Second was Louise, a woman from outside of PA who was a leading voice for the community of Cottingham in their own campaign against the asylum centre at The Lawns, which included their own demonstration and March. She spoke about how positive it was that the people of Cottingham were able to save themselves from this impending disaster by a collective effort.

Thirdly, I (Alek Yerbury) spoke, and I talked about what it means to be a neighbour to others, and how the evils that have led to this situation in Cottingham, Linton, and beyond have been orchestrated by the social parasites of the establishment. I also talked about how the rally itself was proof that people are not alone in their objections.

Lastly, we had a speech from PA Leader Mark Collett, who put the issue of asylum centres and migrant hotels in the context of the wider issue of demographic replacement and destruction of native British people by a treacherous and corrupt Westminster government.

All of the speeches were incredibly well-received by the crowd, and met with silence by the left, who, incidentally, lamented afterwards at how unfair it was that such a huge number of people turned up.

When you don't get the memo about pretending you had more people

Following on from the speeches, we handed out leaflets and spoke with members of the public about their concerns. It was invigorating to hear that so many people shared the same concerns as us and we listened to their stories and reasoning with great interest.

What we know from this is that the people of Hull have made it clear that they are not happy with the corrupt system of things that is bringing decent people to rack and ruin. We will be back.

Britain Awake' has been a constant watchword of British Fascism ever since it was first founded. But exactly which type of British men and women do we wish to awaken? Especially we appeal to the youth and exservicemen of this country.

On no account, however, must you throw yourself headlong into this movement. Your duty in the movement is simply this, in whatever rank you may be placed work unceasingly and untiringly to promote the truth of British Fascism and NBU.

It is essential in the Fascist movement that everybody, officers and members, work together. It is essential for the cause, and if you are a true Fascist the cause should be one of the most important things in your life.

If you are committed to our cause you will wish to see not only your family and friends, but also all the other millions who are living under sham democracy reborn into a new Britain. A Britain which admires and respects every member in its community, a Britain whose duty it shall be to undertake to look after her citizens instead of looking after the City of London. That is Fascism. And that is where team-work comes in. We want to teach every man and woman in Britain the meaning of Fascism. A great deal of work has to be done and that is where we ask for your help. It is your duty to help us realise our idea.

It is for the young men and women who have the whole of their lives ahead of them to decide. For their service there is no material reward, but there is the realisation that they have helped to raise their country to the standard of a great nation again. Every leaflet handed out, every poster put up, every conservation that leads to a visit to our website is another shot fired in the war of truth, to inform and educate our people is a noble cause, to awake Britain our mission, a struggle in which every Blackshirt has their part to play.
